August 1, 1969.

Dear Sarah,

I am just now beginning to gather up the loose-ends for the SouthEastern Chapter.--I haven't even written up the minutes but hope to do that yet today, and will send the check in for the Memorial to Mrs. Faust.

I appreciated the materials and sounds like we will be busy people at the meeting in New Orleans. I should think we should have a short business meeting on Tuesday afternoon after the luncheon, and I agree we are there to work.

I don't know of any business to consider other than the items you mentioned in your July 23d letter.

I can make a report on membership and treasurer's report.

I am spending Saturday night, August 23d with Mary Green and we will drive on to New Orleans on Sunday. I'd like to stop at Baton Rouge before we get to New Orleans to see Kate's new building, so it will probably be after 6 before we reach New Orleans. I notice registration is from 4 to 8 p.m. on Sunday.

It will be good to see you again.

Affectionately

P.S. I will be on vacation--at home -- August 4 thru 10th. Back to work on August 11th.

I intend to write Corinne and tell her we hope to see her during the meeting.
